

Do I Need an IDEA License?

IDEA offers all of its technology solutions, applications, tools, services, and data subject to industry-standard licenses. If you are interested in gaining access to our products or the data that they generate, you should reach out to an IDEA team member by e-mailing us at idea-sales@idea4industry.com or contacting us by phone at (703) 562-4600.

Customers authorized to use IDEA solutions are issued unique access credentials that may not be shared with unauthorized third parties. If you do not have a direct relationship with IDEA but have or suspect you have been offered access to IDEA's solutions or data, you should confirm that your access is authorized to avoid potential intellectual property infringement issues. If you have any questions regarding the nature of your access, we encourage you to contact IDEA to ensure that you do not need to take additional steps before making use of IDEA material.

If you are a licensed IDEA customer, please remember that IDEA material may only be accessed and used in accordance with the license that IDEA has granted to you, and that you are responsible for any activity conducted in connection with your IDEA credentials. Any unauthorized use of IDEA material or access to IDEA systems or data may result in disruption of your access as well as legal consequences.

IDEA welcomes any questions that current or prospective customers may have with respect to its products and services, so please don't hesitate to contact us to ensure that the appropriate steps have been taken to permit you to access and use IDEA resources in the manner that best supports your business.
